Inclusive Dates	1936-2008, Undated
Bulk Dates	1970s-2000s
Abstract	The Press Club of Dallas served as the primary organization for members of the Dallas press. Through their annual Gridiron show, roasts, and satirical newspaper, The Griddle , the Press Club lampooned current events in Dallas. The organization also hosted the annual Katie Awards, which celebrated excellence in journalism and was highly prestigious. The Press Club of Dallas Collection contains records related to the operation of the organization and the Gridiron show, The Griddle , and the Katie Awards. The types of materials found within the collection include programs, correspondence, transcripts, newspapers and newspaper clippings, bulletins, membership directories, museum objects, and visual materials.
Accession Number	A.2014.21, M.2014.21, V.2014.21
Extent	9 boxes (5 archival, 4 visual) and VHS tapes totaling 6.12 linear ft., plus museum objects.

Historical Note

The Press Club of Dallas originated in the late 1940s, when employees of the Dallas Morning News and the Dallas Times-Herald gathered to socialize after work. The organization was formally founded in 1948 and chartered by the State of Texas in 1951. Its members were some of the first responders on the scene when President Kennedy was assassinated, and the new reporting standards established nationwide afterward bolstered the club's appeal to professionals. The Press Club of Dallas moved locations frequently over the years, residing most recently at the Women's Museum in Fair Park. The organization currently maintains a board of directors but has no physical location.¹

The organization's most notable activities are its annual

Gridiron show, Katie Awards, and roasts. The Gridiron show began in 1951 and was modelled on the national one staged in Washington, D.C. Originally consisting of “biting satire,” the performance shifted towards a Broadway-esque style during the late 1970s, but continued to lampoon events in Dallas. The Griddle, a satirical newspaper, was produced and sold at the shows to generate additional revenue. The Katie Awards ceremony began in 1958. It honored “excellence in journalism” and attracted large numbers of members of the press due to the prestige associated with winning one. The Press Club of Dallas also annually roasted prominent local citizens. These events serve as fundraisers for journalism scholarships offered by the organization.²

Scope and Contents

The Press Club of Dallas Collection contains the records generated by members of the Press Club of Dallas. The types of materials found within the collection include records (such as membership lists, minutes, correspondence, financial documents, budgets, and transcripts), printed materials (such as newspapers, programs, bulletins, and pamphlets), museum objects (including clothing, a trophy, plates, the Press Club emblem, and a plaque), and visual materials (photographs, CDs, DVDs, film rolls, and VHS tapes). There are four series in the collection: Records, Printed Materials, Museum Objects, and Visual Materials.

The first series, Records (1951-2007, Undated), is divided into three sub-series: General Records, Gridiron, and Katie Awards. The first sub-series, General Records (1951-2007, Undated), contains invitations, schedules, programs, contracts, newspaper clippings, financial documents, correspondence, letterheads, membership directories, minutes, and an array of documents. These materials relate to the operation and internal activity of the Press Club of Dallas. The second sub-series, Gridiron (1951-2006, Undated), contains programs, correspondence, song sheets, transcripts, invitations, tickets, newspaper clippings, budgets, news releases, notes, bulletins, contracts, and other assorted documents. These materials relate to the Press Club of Dallas’ annual Gridiron show, which satirized events in Dallas from the past year. The third sub-series, Katie Awards (1968-2007, Undated), contains programs, correspondence, schedules, certificates, invitations, newspaper clippings, and documents. These materials relate to the Press Club of Dallas’ annual Katie Awards ceremony that was created to acknowledge outstanding professional journalistic achievement for members of the press in the Dallas area.

The second series, Printed Materials (1936-2008, Undated), is divided into two sub-series: General and The Griddle. The first sub-series, General (1936-2008, Undated), contains bulletins, coupon books, newspapers, and pamphlets. The Press Club of Dallas frequently produced bulletins, often bi-weekly, and the collection contains the majority of them produced between 1962 and 2005. The second sub-series, The Griddle (1957-1995, Undated), contains 'The Griddle', a satirical newspaper produced annually by the Press Club of Dallas to coincide with its Gridiron show.

The third series, Museum Objects (1973-2003, Undated), contains t-shirts, a Katie Awards trophy, button, name tag, plaque, emblem, commemorative dinner plates, framed Press Club of Dallas logo, and a necklace from one of the organization's annual roasts.

The fourth series, Visual Materials (1950-2007, Undated), is divided into five sub-series: Photographs, CDs, DVDs, Film Rolls, and VHS Tapes. The first sub-series, Photographs (1950-2007, Undated), contains photographs taken at various events and activities hosted by the Press Club of Dallas, such as the Gridiron show, the Katie Awards, and annual roasts. It also contains portraits of the organization's presidents for the majority of the years between 1950 and 1989. The second sub-series, CDs (2003-2007, Undated), is a collection of CDs with photographic material stored on them. The third sub-series, DVDs (1993-2004), is a collection of DVDs related to the Press Club of Dallas' Gridiron show. The fourth sub-series, Film Rolls (Undated), contains six unidentified rolls of film. The fifth sub-series, VHS Tapes (1986-2003, Undated), contains VHS tapes with content related to the Press Club of Dallas' Gridiron show, annual roasts, and two tapes with unidentified material.

This collection offers insight into the primary organization for members of the Dallas press, and would be especially useful for those interested in finding another (often satirical) interpretation of events that occurred in Dallas during the mid-to-late 20th century and early 21st century.
