Biographical Note
The Women’s Service League of Dallas was established in 1959. Its originating name was the Park Cities Big Sisters, then it was changed to Dallas County Big Sister, then to Dallas Big Sisters, and then arrived at its final name of Women’s Service League of Dallas in 1986. The two founding members, Ann Buchanan and Mrs. R.M. Potts, felt the need for an organization to help young Dallas girls better themselves and their lives, and this is where WSL came in.
WSL’s mission was to supplement existing organization that already provided this vital service.

The WSL’s programs and events were run entirely on volunteer service by those who were members of the group themselves or by those who wished to help young women with the WSL. The first organization to receive WSL’s help was the juvenile detention home, and grew to more than 20 more organizations by the end of their run. Every program and event was put on in order to raise the confidence and self-esteem of every young girl within the partner agency and the Dallas/Fort Worth area. WSL had received many awards and accolades for their dedicated service to women and the community. In 2004, the Women’s Service League ceased operations after almost 50 years in existence.
