HATTON W. SUMNERS PAPERS FINDING AID

Collection Title Hatton W. Sumners papers, A.46.213

Creator Hatton W. Sumners

Abstract This collection contains the personal, political, legislative, general papers and speeches of Hatton W. Sumners, Congressman from Texas from 1912-1946, head of the judiciary committee 1931-1946. Includes newspaper clippings, postcards, letters, etc. received by him over the course of his life. Bills, laws, and supreme court cases Sumners advocated for and against are also included in the collection, and correspondence sent and received by Sumners relating to World War I and World War II. Post-congressional papers, 1947-1962, are also included in the collection. Scrapbooks of newspaper, in addition to photographs, and rough drafts of books Sumners wrote are also present in the collection.

Scope and Content

Collection contains sixty-seven boxes of general correspondence from 1902-1963 including his personal correspondence with his parents and sister. Personal business and land papers are also included. Sumner's legislative correspondence consists of thirty-three boxes dealing with sundry laws, committees and issues before congress, 1912-1947 including Sumner's role in the FDR Court Packing Scheme of 1937. Thirteen boxes of newspaper clippings from 1898-1947 are included in the collection dealing with a host of political issues and controversies both local and national. Seven boxes contain Sumner's speeches delivered to numerous organizations around the country and before congress over the course of his life.

Quantity 62 linear feet, 152 boxes
