Administrative History:

The Dallas Shakespeare Club was founded in 1886 by Mrs. J. T. Trezevant. The first meeting was held on January 28, 1886, at Mrs. Trezevant's home with the purpose of organizing a Shakespeare Study Club. The first club meeting was held on February 8, 1886, at the Grand Winsor Hotel in Dallas. The object of the club was to be a "thorough and earnest study of Shakespeare." They were also credited with gifting Shakespeare's First Folio to the Dallas Public Library, in honor of their 100th anniversary.

Sources: The Dallas Shakespeare Club Collection.
